

NEWBERRY VERDICT IS GROSS PERVERSION OF JUSTICE, SAYS HUGHES

Government Counsel Holds It As Salutary Lesson to those who would Purchase an Election-- Hughes Says Defendants Suffered Grievous Wrong.

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Conviction of Senator Truman H. Newberry of Michigan, and sixteen others of conspiring to violate the corrupt practices act was denounced as a "gross perversion of justice," by counsel for the senator and was upheld by the government as a salutary lesson to those who would purchase an election by paid propaganda, before the supreme court today when arguments in the appeal were heard.

Charles E. Hughes, former associate justice of the court, who headed counsel for the defense, asserted that only thru a "grotesque" construction of the law had the government been able to present any case to the jury. He quoted the government brief as showing that it was admitted that no restriction was placed by law on the expenditures of a political committee in behalf of any candidate, nor on the amount such a committee might raise for a campaign and further that no attempt was made by the government to show that Senator Newberry himself contributed in excess of the legal limitation of $3,750.

The entire basis of the government's case, Mr. Hughes told the court, was that "these legal committees having raised a total sum of money for a legal purpose became an illegal conspiracy because his candidate was aware that more than $3,750 was being expended."

Suffered Grievous Wrong
"Mr. Newberry and the other defendants," Mr. Hughes said, "have suffered a grievous wrong in processes of so-called justice which this court should correct." Apart from the direct attack on the conviction as illegal and unsound by the evidence, the defense attempted to show the court that the corrupt practices act itself, so far as it attempted to limit campaign expenditures for legal objects was unconstitutional.

Solicitor General Frierson, presenting the government's case took issue with the theory presented by the defense as to what constituted a violation of the corrupt practices act. Senator Newberry, according to Mr. Frierson, being desirous of entering the race for senator in 1918, called a conference in New York of Paul H. King of Detroit, afterwards Michigan manager, and Frederick W. Ladd of New York, former superintendent of Detroit schools.

Called It Conspiracy
At this conference the question of the campaign's cost arose and Mr. Frierson said Newberry was told that it would require the expenditure of $50,000 or more. Having agreed to enter the race on the express condition that this sum would be expended, the government held that he, Cody and King, had entered a conspiracy to defeat the provisions of the statute.

Mr. Frierson added that more than $175,000 was shown to have been spent by the campaign and the committee and this sum "did not include money spent in behalf of Helme, a candidate for the nomination of the Democratic party. Deposits and withdrawals from banks made in behalf of the campaign approximated $200,000, the prosecution asserted."

In the absence of Chief Justice White who was detained at his home by a slight indisposition, Justice McKenna presided. Replying to a question from the bench as to whether each of the 17 defendants had been equally identified with the conspiracy, Mr. Frierson said all save one, and named George S. Ladd, of Sturbridge, Massachusetts, as the exception.

While not prepared to confess error in the case of Mr. Ladd, Mr. Frierson said he was "largely doubtful" as to the government's position, the evidence against him having been fragmentary. Ladd, a former master of Massachusetts State Grange, was sentenced to a fine of $1,000.

Arguing that the mere fact of a candidate's knowledge should not be accepted as making what would be perfectly legal violation of the law, Mr. Hughes said: "The government says in effect that a political committee may raise and spend millions, if it will shut its candidate up in a cage until after the nomination is won."

EMERGENCY TARIFF BILL SUBJECT OF SPIRITED DEBATE

Buyers Strike Criticised by Col. John
P. Wood

SENATORS DEFEND
THE GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Consideration of the Fordney emergency tariff bill was sidetracked for a time today by the senate finance committee, while its members defended efforts of the government to force down living costs. The departure from the program came when a witness charged the government with responsibility for economic conditions confronting the country through encouragement of a buyers' strike. For an hour, discussion was cast off and pointed exchanges took place.

Notwithstanding warnings by acting Chairman McCumber and Senator Smoot, Republican, of Utah, that the committee must obtain speedy action on the bill to prevent further losses for the farmers, Senators Thomas, Colorado, and Jones of New Mexico, Democrats, indulged in a spirited argument with Colonel John P. Wood of Philadelphia, who appeared in behalf of the wool manufacturers.

To Colonel Woods' assertion that the government and particularly the department of justice had been "unwise" in promulgating a campaign against high prices, Senator Thomas rejoined that present conditions were simply those of "one man being willing to use another's loss money but very anxious not to loose any himself."

Objects to Methods
"My objections," said the witness, "are principally against the methods used by the government and particularly by Attorney General Palmer. Mr. Palmer and his staff, instead of seeking out and prosecuting specific profiteering, have dealt in generalities. It has resulted in discredit attaching to all of business."

Colonel Thomas declared that Mr. Palmer's course was the only way to uncover specific cases and added that business should have purged its own ranks. He expressed the belief that the consumer had some rights after all and that the government had functioned in the interests of a vast majority of the people, when it sought to bring down the price of commodities.

Other witnesses were heard during the day.

The House ways and means committee at its meeting today continued consideration on permanent tariff legislation.

COAL OPERATORS WERE ASHAMED TO TAKE THE MONEY

Sutherland Said That Buyers Forced the Money on Them

SUBMIT PRICES TO
ATTORNEY GENERAL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Prices charged the war department for coal last summer and fall would be investigated by the department of justice under a recognition which Senator Calder, of New York, chairman of the senate coal investigating committee announced today had been submitted to the attorney general. Disclosure as to the committee's action came during general debate in the senate today on coal profiteering.

The committee chairman's announcement was followed by a statement from Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, a member of the committee, that if the American people were robbed as the war department was robbed on coal last fall, the robbery ran up to hundreds of millions of dollars.

Ashamed to Take Money.
Taking up the other side of the controversy as regards the high prices charged for coal last year, Senator Sutherland, Republican, West Virginia, declared that "because buyers crowding forward and bidding against each other, sent the prices up out of reason, coal operators who stood back had to take the money, though they were ashamed to do so."

Chairman Calder announced that legislation was being prepared to prevent a repetition of the situation which confronted consumers last year.

Senator Smoot, Republican, Utah, requested investigation of retail coal distribution and Chairman Calder promised to make an endeavor to do so. Further inquiring the chairman said would be started next week.

FATHER O'DONNELL TELLS STORY OF DOUBLE KILLING

Asserts Disparaging Remarks Made About Catholicism

PROSECUTION
RESTS ITS CASE

MONROE, Mich., Jan. 7.—Rev. Daniel O'Donnell, chaplain in the thirty second division overseas was the principal witness today in the trial of Albert Sherman, farmer and special deputy sheriff, charged with the murder of Walter Gilday and Maurice Drouillard early on the morning of June 25 at the Wesleyan Methodist church at Rabideaux Corners near here.

Both men were shot to death when special deputies attempted to protect Louis King, Toledo, evangelist who is said to have made slighting remarks against the Catholic faith at revival meetings in his church.

Made Disparaging Remarks.
The Rev. Father O'Donnell testified at 3:50 Woodward avenue, St. Anthony's parish near Rabideaux Corners. He told on the witness stand of disparaging remarks his parishioners had charged King with making against Catholicism, declaring these had aroused bitter feeling among his worshippers and had led to talk of tarring and feathering the evangelist.

Father O'Donnell told the jury that on Sunday night before the shooting two automobiles loaded with young men from Erie, Mich. drove up to his rectory. He testified the men told him that King had said "Catholic soldiers who served in the trenches, laid down."

The priest said he counseled the men against violence and they drove away.

Shortly after one o'clock Monday morning, he said, one machine returned with Gilday dead, and he returned with Drouillard dying. He claimed the privilege of his calling in failing to give further evidence as to what transpired.

The prosecution which sought to prove that Sherman fired without provocation, rested its case late today.

ILDERIM TEMPLE D.O.K.K. HOST TO IMPERIAL PRINCE

Harry A. Nice is Guest of Local Temple
Friday

HISTORY OF ILDERIM TEMPLE

Ilderim Temple No. 62 D. O. K. K. was host Friday evening to Harry A. Nice of Baltimore, Imperial Prince of the organization. There was a large number of members present to greet the officer and they heard one of the best addresses on fraternity ever given in this city.

L. O. Vaught acted as chairman of the evening and introduced Carl E. Robinson, who delivered the address of welcome. After a number by the Dokay quartet the chair introduced Hugh P. Green, Royal Vizier of the Temple who made a few timely remarks. Mr. Vaught then introduced Mr. Nice, who held his audience for nearly an hour in a splendid talk on fraternity.

"The greatest thing to come into the life of any community," said the speaker, "is our fraternity."

Mr. Nice predicted that in the next ten years the D. O. K. K. will be the greatest order in the world. It is coming fast and now has a membership of 62,600. This will reach 75,000 by next summer.

Teachings of Order.
The teachings of the order make men better. It teaches reverence for home and for country. It brings together men of all walks of life and unites them into one common brotherhood.

It picks up the fallen and exemplifies the story of the good samaritan. It teaches us to know ourselves and to break away from selfishness and indifference. Mr. Nice urged the members to get together and attend the next meeting of the imperial palace to be held in Chattanooga, Tenn. In closing he expressed his appreciation of the hospitality extended by the local temple. Following the address the chair called upon H. M. Capps, Mr. Buhr, T. M. Tomlinson, Dr. W. E. Spoons, H. J. Rogers and Capt. McCarthy who spoke briefly. The program closed with a quartet number and then refreshments were served and some time spent socially.

The following history of the temple will prove of interest.

Organized by Judge Barnes.
Ilderim Temple is one of the oldest temples of the order. Judge Charles A. Barnes was responsible for its organization. As one of the leading Pythians of Illinois he had become acquainted with John A. Hinsey, of Milwaukee, a prominent official of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, who had largely written the ritual of the order and who was then at its head as Imperial Prince. Thru his personal friendship with Mr. Hinsey Judge Barnes had secured the location of a temple in Jacksonville, with jurisdiction over the counties of Sangamon, Macoupin, Menard, Greene, Scott, Cass, Pike, Brown and Morgan. He had reported this fact to a number of the men who were then active in Pythian affairs here and on April 25th, 1896, an invitation, signed by Charles A. Barnes, L. O. Vaught, Lee Morrison and O. P. Thompson was sent to all of the Kings of Pythias lodges in the counties named asking them to send a representative to a conference to be held at Jacksonville on the evening of May 7th.

At this meeting Judge Thompson presided and it was decided that a temple of the order D. O. K. K. be organized and the necessary committees were appointed. After a number of preliminary meetings the temple was instituted on November 17th, 1896. The event was a notable one. Imperial Prince Hinsey attended as well as Hon. John J. Brown, of Vandalia, Gen. Berkeley of Springfield, and many others of the men most prominent in the Pythian order in Illinois. The secret work was exemplified by a team from the new temple and of that team R. A. Gates, J. K. C. Pierson, C. L. DePew, H. J. Henderson and L. O. Vaught are still with us. An elaborate banquet was served at the Dunlap House, followed by a long string of toasts.

Prominent Men on Roster.
No temple was ever started under more favorable circumstances. Among its members were the leading citizens of Jacksonville and the surroundings. In every walk of life, their names sufficient to make anything go with which they were connected.

Judge Barnes was always earnestly interested in the temple and thru his membership the temple had the honor of having on its roster a Past Grand Chancellor of Illinois, a Supreme Representative and a Supreme Chancellor. Mr. F. Duran was another man who took an active part in the temple in the early days, then as now an officer of the Grand lodge of Illinois. John J. Brown, (Continued on Page Four).

NO EFFORT MADE TO BUILD HOSPITALS FOR EX-SERVICE MEN

Men are Placed in Hospitals With Criminal

Insane, Drug Addicts and Vicious Degenerates—They Must Be Adjudged Insane Paupers—What Mothers of Country Think

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Not a cent of the money so far appropriated by congress for the care of veterans suffering from disability or wounds incurred in service has been spent for hospitals, for the treatment of insane, the house commerce committee was informed today by Dr. Thomas W. Salmon of New York, advisor on mental diseases to the Rockefeller Foundation. The statement was made at a hearing on the Rogers bill to consolidate into one bureau the several government agencies dealing with relief for former service men.

As a result of this failure to provide proper facilities, Dr. Salmon added, veterans suffering from mental and nervous disorders are in many instances being committed by the government to institutions in which criminal insane, drug addicts and vicious degenerates are segregated.

In addition to Dr. Salmon those who urged passage of the bill included Dr. H. A. Pattison, of New York, supervisor of medical service of the National Tuberculosis association; F. W. Galbraith, national commander of the American Legion, and several other officers of the latter organization.

Need Government Hospitals.
Dr. Pattison stressed the need for government hospitals for treatment of veterans suffering from tuberculosis, while Mr. Galbraith suggested that decentralization of authority in dealing with disabled men had put many to them in a "frightful" predicament. Dr. Salmon who was in charge of the treatment of neuro-psychiatric cases in the American expeditionary force gave a graphic description of the plight of men suffering from shell shock and other mental and nervous troubles. One third of the ex-service men receiving treatment at government expense are neuro-psychiatric, he said and six of each ten men so afflicted are insane.

Dr. Salmon charged that under the present method insane service men must be adjudged "insane paupers" in court before they can be committed to state or county asylums.

What Mothers Think.
"Many a mother has told me," he said, "that she would rather see her son under a cross in France than to have him adjudged an insane pauper and committed to a state institution."

As a result of this sentiment, he added, some men are "tinking at home afraid to come forward, going worse all the time."

Dr. Salmon estimated that 50 per cent of the men suffering from nervous and mental afflictions, with proper treatment could be returned to society "either well or socially recovered."

Discussing the tuberculosis situation, Dr. Pattison denied that many service men are "tinking at home afraid to come forward, going worse all the time."

MERRING'S

KREIDLER BELIEVES IN PREPAREDNESS.

Louis Kreidler, who will appear in Jacksonville on January 17, long before the word "preparedness" became the vogue, was a firm believer in its teachings.

This was demonstrated when he turned all his bridges behind him and determined to strike out for an operatic career. With fifteen different managers and impresarios with no special encouragement he had sung for, he quietly waited for things to happen, when one day his phone rang and a voice from the other end asked him to come at once to the office of one of the managers for whom he had previously sung.

Upon arriving he was ushered into the austere presence of the impresario himself and the question, "Do you know Sharpless in Butterfly?" was hurled at him.
Fortunately to this question he could reply in the affirmative and he confessed to knowing it in two languages. The next question was, "How well do you know it?"
To this he could also conscientiously reply that he knew it perfectly. The manager still doubtful, asked, "Could you sing it tonight?" In spite of the fact of Kreidler never having been on the operatic stage before in his life and the hour 3 p. m. he braced himself and said firmly,
"Yes."

Whereupon he was told to report at the Park theatre for the evening performance. Mr. Kreid-ler sang and acted the role so ac-ceptably that he contracted then and there to finish the engagement at the Park theatre and was later sent on the road with the same organization. To say that Mr. Kreidler believes in the old adage that opportunity knocks but once, would be putting it rather strongly, but he does believe in being ready at all times.

FORMER WHITE HALL
MAN IS HONORED

Col. C. H. Bridges Included in List of Eligibles For Duty On General Staff of Army.

White Hall, Jan. 5.—"I am proud of him," announced Mrs.
Sarah A. Higbee, who will be 98 years of age next March, when announced that her grandson, Col.
Charles H. Bridges, had been included in the initial eligible list of officers who are hereafter to be made available for duty on the general staff of the army.
The list was compiled after several months of labor and discrimination by a board composed of General Pershing, Major Generals J. W. McAndrew and S. D.
Sturgis, Brigadier Generals C. H.
Muir and F. T. Hines, and Colonel
K. A. Joyce.

The publication of the list has been awaited with much interest by army officers, and now that it has appeared it is being received with considerable criticism. The disappointment, not to say indignation, of some officers is frankly expressed, especially on the part of those who had reason evidently to believe that they stood a reasonable chance of being appointed to the list, and who are now, under the terms of the law June 4, forever deprived of the opportunity of being detailed to general staff duty, unless he is a graduate of the general staff college and specially recommended as qualified for general staff duty.

Col. Bridges is a native of White Hall, and his mother, Mrs.
P. D. Cheney, resides with her mother on North Main street. It was expected that the distinguished son in the army would be here during the holiday season, but receipt of a copy of the Army and Navy Register gives details of the new honor that had not been communicated in private correspondence, and explains Col. Bridges' failure to come membership in the American Legion in Washington, having become affiliated with the movement in France in its initial stages. He is now located at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer use clarified molasses, instead of corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste. Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., St. Wayne, Ind.

ALTON HIGH DEFEATS JACKSONVILLE HIGH

Wins Game By a Score of 17 to 15—Game Was Slow and Neither Team Good on Offense.

Jacksonville high lost to Alton high in David Prince gymnasium Friday night, the final score being 17 to 13.

The game was slow and marked by a great deal of stalling on the part of Alton when she got the ball. The team plays a five man defense and would get the ball and pass it back and forth at one end of the court without attempting to advance it toward the basket.

Jacksonville was only playing her third game while Alton was playing her seventh game. However, the locals showed up well and but for fouling probably would have won the contest. Jacksonville had nine personal fouls called during the game and Hildebrand scored five points from the nine tries.

KNIGHTS WIN FROM CHANDLERVILLE

Defeat Visitors By Overwhelming Score of 48 to 8—Zell, Carson and Woulfe Star on Offense.

The Knights of Columbus basketball team buried the Chandlerville Independents under an avalanche of baskets at Liberty hall Friday night. When the smoke cleared away the score was 48 to 8 in favor of the Knights.

The visitors never had a chance from the first whistle and it was only a question of how many the Knights would make. Had their endurance been better they probably would have made more points.

Zell, Carson and Woulfe were the main cogs in the local offense. The guarding of Clancy, Cain and Flynn was so strong that the visitors seldom got near the basket. The score:

ILLINOIS PLAYS SHURTLEFF TONIGHT

Will Meet Fast Alton Team in David Prince Gym—Illinois Has Only Had Five Nights Practice.

Coach Harmon's Illinois college five will meet the fast Shurtleff five of Alton in David Prince gymnasium this evening. The game will be called at 8 o'clock and Foltz, coach of the Pittsfield high school, will officiate.

Shurtleff probably will have a big edge on Illinois in this game as the locals have had only five nights of practice. For a time it looked as though Illinois would have to abandon her schedule because of inability to get a place to practice.

Arrangements were finally made with the board of education to use the David Prince gymnasium between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock. This is not a satisfactory arrangement but it was the best Coach Harmon could do. Rather than let Illinois College be without a team this year, the men were willing to be put to some inconvenience in order to keep together.

Shurtleff should present a strong team to the Blue and White this evening. Wells and Edwards of the stars of Alton's crack high school basketball five last year, are in the Shurtleff lineup and will no doubt keep the locals busy.

Coach Harmon owing to the short time in which the men have been practicing, will no doubt, have to make frequent shifts as the men probably will not have enough endurance to go the entire route.

Harmon announced last night that he probably would start the game with Antrobus and Harney at the forward positions, Mellon at center and Cully and Ransdell at guard.

This will give him the following men in reserve: Wright and Lashmet, forwards; Whitteck, Brown, center; Slack and Jones guards.

ACTING SECRETARY ASKS FOR ADVICE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Definite indications had appeared tonight that the state department might take into its own hands without regard to the department of labor the question of admitting to the United States, Daniel J. O'Connell, lord mayor of Cork, paroled by the labor department after his arrival at Newport News as a stowaway.

Conflict between the two departments was foreshadowed yesterday, brought out into the open today and actuated to-night, when it was learned that acting Secretary Davis of the state department had called upon the department's legal authorities for advice on the question of his department taking the entire O'Connell admission matter into his hands. The state department it has been indicated favors deportation of the lord mayor, while the department has been represented as favoring admission of the Cork official.

U. S. LEADS IN AIDING EX-SOLDIERS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The United States is doing more along the line of vocational rehabilitation of former service men than any other country in the world, the senate educational committee said in a report today accompanying a bill which would extend training benefits to Americans who served in the allied armies, and also to widows and children of men who lost their lives.

The committee's report said that 75,000 men had taken advantage of the training law and that 2,000 had been restored to industrial activity.

TRAINS DELIVER LETTERS QUICKER THAN AIRPLANES

Air Mail Service Would Cost Ten Billion A Year

RECEIPTS ARE $450,000,000

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The speediest method of transporting mail between New York and Chicago is by train, not by air, Chairman Madden of the appropriations sub-committee declared in the house today in explaining provisions of the postoffice appropriation bill carry a total of $573,964,721.

Cost of airplane mail is at the rate of $5 a ton mile compared with a rail rate of seven cents a ton mile, Mr. Madden said, and if carried by air the cost would be ten billions a year, with actual receipts around $450,000,000. Aside from the cost, Mr. Madden declared there was no time saving by air in the New York-Chicago service.

"Alletter for this service must be placed in the postoffice at Chicago not later than 3:45 p. m.," he said. "Sometime between that hour and midnight it goes to the flying field eleven miles distant, leaves the next morning at 7 o'clock and by good luck reaches New York at 6 p. m."

"It goes on delivery the following morning. So about 48 hours elapse between posting and delivery. The time limit on fast mail train delivery is 24 hours, just one half."

General debate was begun on the postoffice bill which will have the right of way until passed.

FARMER-LABOR CONGRESS TO MEET

Cleveland, O., Jan. 7.—The annual convention of the Farmer-Labor co-operative congress will meet in Cleveland for a three day session beginning February 10, Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers announced today. Representatives of progressive farm organizations representing over nine hundred thousand farmers, delegates of various labor organizations and of several hundred co-operative societies will attend.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Senator King, Democrat, Utah, completed today a bill proposing to restore to German citizens all property taken over by the alien property custodian during the war. He plans to introduce it Monday. A special court for the consideration of the claims would be created by the measure and the United States would not have to pay more than the $700,000,000 realized from such property as has been sold.

also one of the temple's members followed in Judge Barnes footsteps, as Grand Chancellor. Supreme Representative and finally Supreme Chancellor. Later John J. Reeve became Grand Chancellor of Illinois and is now a Supreme Representative. It is doubtful if there is any temple of the whole order which has had on its roster more men notable in Pythianism.

The temple has had its ups and downs but has always maintained its position as one of the strong temples of the order. It has been represented in the Imperial Palace by J. K. C. Pierson, J. H. Shriver, R. I. Dunlap, L. B. Turner and L. O. Vaught. Having now over three hundred members it is entitled to two representatives and these are Carl Robinson and Jewell E. Scott. Years ago Mr. Vaught was appointed to a place on the finance committee of the Imperial Palace and at the last meeting at Peoria was named chairman of that committee.

Probably the most prominent place in the history of the temple is occupied by McCarthy's Arabs. These men drilled so successfully by Captain McCarthy, have for years been the real life of the temple. No ceremonial was complete without their appearance. They were the standbys, ever ready to do anything necessary to make things go. They represented the temple at the meeting in Minneapolis also at Asbury Park, and always with credit to themselves, they have often appeared locally and have drilled at different Pythian events in the state. At Decatur they took first place over the crack Peoria team. The next Imperial Palace meeting will be held this coming August at Chattanooga, Tenn. $10,000 in prizes have been offered. McCarthy's Arabs will be there and it is confidently expected that they will bring back with them the first prize as the best drilled Arab band in the United States. The boys will be satisfied with nothing else. However, one thing is certain: Wherever they go the old town may rest secure in this that it will be creditably represented by a bunch of clean, upstanding men.

During the almost 25 years since its institution, the temple has been called on twice to institute new temples, first at East St. Louis, last spring at Hannibal, Mo. This shows something of the standing of the temple in the order at large.

Feet Drag?

When it is an effort to drag one foot after the other, when you are always tired and seem lacking in strength and endurance, when aches and pains rack the body, it is well to look for symptoms of kidney trouble.

Foley Kidney Pills

banish effects of kidney and bladder trouble by removing the cause. They are healing and curative. They tone up and strengthen the weakened or diseased organs. They relieve backache, rheumatism, pains, stiff joints, sore muscles.

W. W. Wells, Tazewell, Mich., writes: "I got great relief from taking Foley Kidney Pills. I am on my feet most of the time and get tired out. After taking Foley Kidney Pills, they make me feel like a new man. I recommend them to my customers and never have heard of any case where they did not give satisfaction."

ROTARY CLUB HEARD INFORMING ADDRESS

Dr. Carl Black Talked About Surgery and the War—Pointed to Important Results From Contact Which Came Through Service.

In the parting word at the Rotary luncheon at the Pacific Hotel Friday, President Pontius urged the members of the club to be Rotarians all thru the week, remembering the motto, "He profits most who serves best." It has been the suggestion of officers of the state that each club president offer occasional suggestions as to the meeting and purpose of Rotary and members of the local club are finding the suggestions of Mr. Pontius especially noteworthy.

Dr. Carl E. Black made the address to the club yesterday his subject being "The Economics of Surgery as Developed By the World War." The subject was handled in a way that made it a matter of unusual interest to all in the company.

Before the address the visitors were introduced, including E. L. Snyder, Rev. W. H. Marbach, J. Bart Johnson and Master Fred Hook.

The president announced the appointment of a committee to arrange for Jacksonville's part in the district conference to be held in April. This committee includes R. Y. Rowe, Paul Samnell, Charles Buhner, Earl M. Spink, LeRoy Potter and Albert C. Metcalf.

The speaker said that if the chairman of the program committee were not present he would say that on account of the extremely short notice, he should have refused to appear today on the program and that the only thing which prevented this was the fact that he considered it the duty of every Rotarian to do as he was requested by duly authorized committee.

Dr. Black said in part: "The doctor as an individual, is probably as highly respected as any member of the community, but collectively, the doctors are a sort of public nuisance. The business man cannot understand the continual efforts of the doctor to injure his own business by seeking all kinds of public health and other legislation which will decrease the number of accidents and cases of sickness. Such acts of public health are viewed with suspicion by the public and the legislators. Nor does the public wish to be disturbed by unpleasant thoughts of sickness which may never come. After all, however, preservation of public health is probably the most important function of the state, if we are to continue to advance."

"The advent of pure water is probably the greatest influence in bringing about prohibition. (As an illustration he referred to the fact that when he was in Vienna, Austria, in 1889, that they had recently opened a pure water supply for the whole city, and that during the first year the consumption of wines and liquors fell off 40 per cent.)"

"As to the future of pure water, Germany and Austria use it for the same reason and Europe uses it. Turkey carries her water by using it in the form of tea and coffee."

New War Record.
"As to surgery in the great war, this was the first time in any war that the deaths from casualties exceeded those from disease. In the Spanish-American war for every man that died from gunshot wounds, thirty died of disease. And while in the civil war 50 per cent of the injured never returned to duty, in the great war 85 per cent of the injured returned to the front and an additional 5 per cent was able to serve in the rear."

"In the last 10 years the average length of human life has increased 15 years and if the well known methods of sanitation and the prevention of industrial accidents were followed out as they should be, another 15 per cent would be easily added to the length of human life in the next quarter century. We are now in the period of reconstruction and this is the time to put into operation new methods for the prevention and cure of disease."

"I believe that every Rotarian desires that every citizen shall be well housed, well fed and well clothed and educated, and for this reason we should not expect to return to pre-war conditions, but should strive for a higher efficiency for all citizens, which can only be attained by better working conditions."

Advantages in Contact.
"The war had a beneficial influence upon surgery in that it gave the opportunity for surgeons from America to meet daily those from England, France, Italy and other countries. Of the 35,000 American physicians who put on the khaki and the blue, 19,000 were sent overseas."

"There were weekly meetings of the inter-allied surgical conference and the American Red Cross established a great medical library and research laboratory in Paris where these meetings were held. In this way the best ideas of the world were available for every man who wished to appropriate them. While there was no outstanding discovery in medicine or surgery during the war, there was great improvement in the details of technique, and very many things which had been poorly done in the past are much better done now."

The speaker referred to the treatment of infection, of shock, of gangrene, tetanus, compound fractures, the administration of anesthetics, operations upon the chest and the abdomen, as evidence that medicine in the great war was an undenied triumph.

Continuing he said: "The association of our physicians in service and the association with other physicians in France has shown the way to better co-operation among doctors. The isolated practitioner is bound to be soon of the past. The future of medicine and surgery, and especially surgery, makes co-operation between all branches of the profession an absolute necessity."

The Day of Specialists.

"The surgeon-diagnostician-therapist is an anachronism and will and should soon be of the past. Every surgeon, as well as every general practitioner, needs the aid of the specialist in all fields in order that a correct diagnosis may be arrived at. The bane of surgery today is the large number of unnecessary or ill-advised operations which are performed on the one hand, and the large number which should be performed but are overlooked, on the other."

The speaker laid emphasis on the fact that in the near future surgery must be done under different conditions and that it will lay to the public as to what these conditions shall be. Either the state will take over the whole matter and medical and surgical practice will be in the hands of state appointees, which means that it will be governed by politics, or else the vast co-operation of elements which are so dominant in Europe and now compromise more than 200,000,000 people, will undertake the treatment of the sick, unless the profession and the public get together and demand what is known as group practice. This simply means that a group of experts will co-operate with each other in arriving at correct diagnosis and providing proper treatment based upon such diagnoses. The speaker emphasized the fact that the day of the old-fashioned interests of the profession and of the public demand some form of professional co-operation."

GREAT PLAY PRESENTED HERE BY GREAT ACTOR

Guy Bates Post Delighted Audience With Artistry of "The Masquerader."

It was a compliment to Jacksonville that a really great man of the stage, Guy Bates Post, and his strong company should visit this city. "The Masquerader" with all its splendid realism of acting and stage accessories was presented at the Grand Opera house Friday night.

In the minds of many in the audience who had not previously had the pleasure of seeing Mr. Post, the actor readily took place as a fit companion for Joseph Jefferson, David Warfield, Henry Irving, Forbes Robertson, Frederick Ward, Henry Miller, Louis James and others of an all too limited group. "The Masquerader" was presented here by Richard Walton Tully, a producer who does nothing unless he does it on a generous scale and well.

This dramatic masterpiece by John Hunter Booth is based upon the novel of Katherine C. Thurston and affords Mr. Post a dual role. The play is something of the Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde type, yet the dual personalities in "The Masquerader" are more deftly interwoven.

In this play the actor presents the lives of two men, one of them a member of parliament and the other a newspaper writer. As John Chichote, member of parliament, the story is told of the gradual decay of a man of powerful intellect before the insidious attack of a drug habit. The strength of character of John Loder, the other man, is made the stronger by contrast.

Aside from the appreciation of the wonderful characters that Mr. Post made thru his art, the audience last night marveled at the manner in which scene followed scene with almost instantaneous change. The scenes was closely interwoven as the lines and the whole presentation was a work of art.

Local people are indebted to Manager Eschbach for bringing to Jacksonville an attraction of such standard worth.
